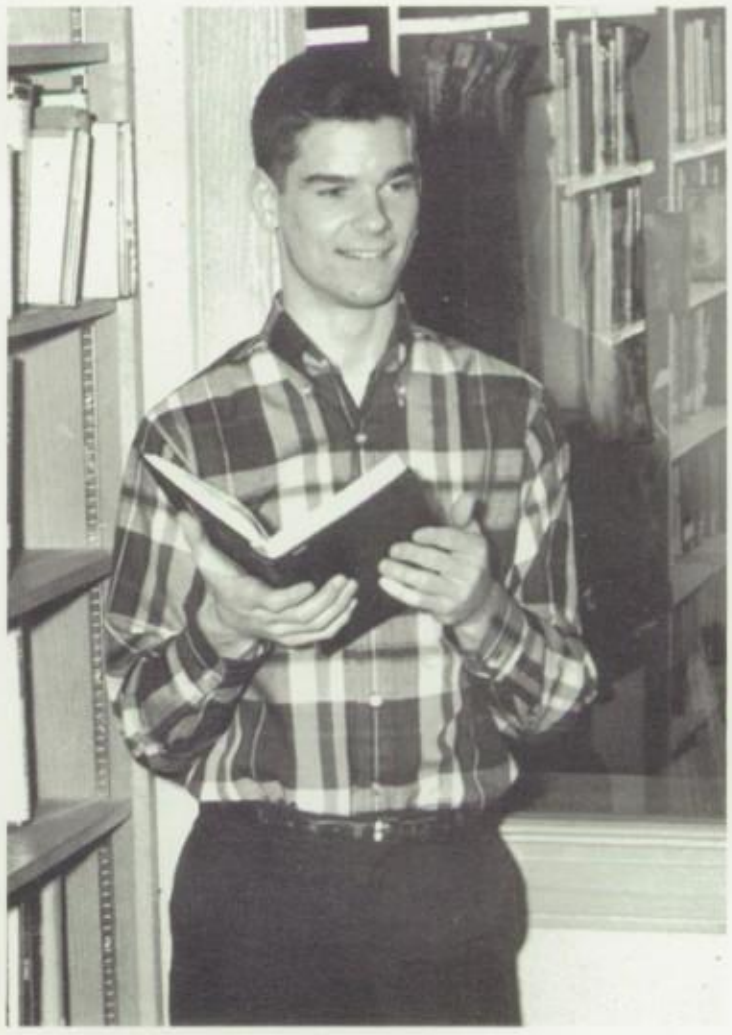
GOOD CITIZENSHIP AWARDS

The qualities of the Daughter of the American Revolution and the Son of the American Revolution are dependability, cooperation, leadership and patriotism. The seniors choose the three most qualified. The faculty makes the final selection. Mary Ellen Pelling received the DAR award, and Hibbie Matter the SAR award.

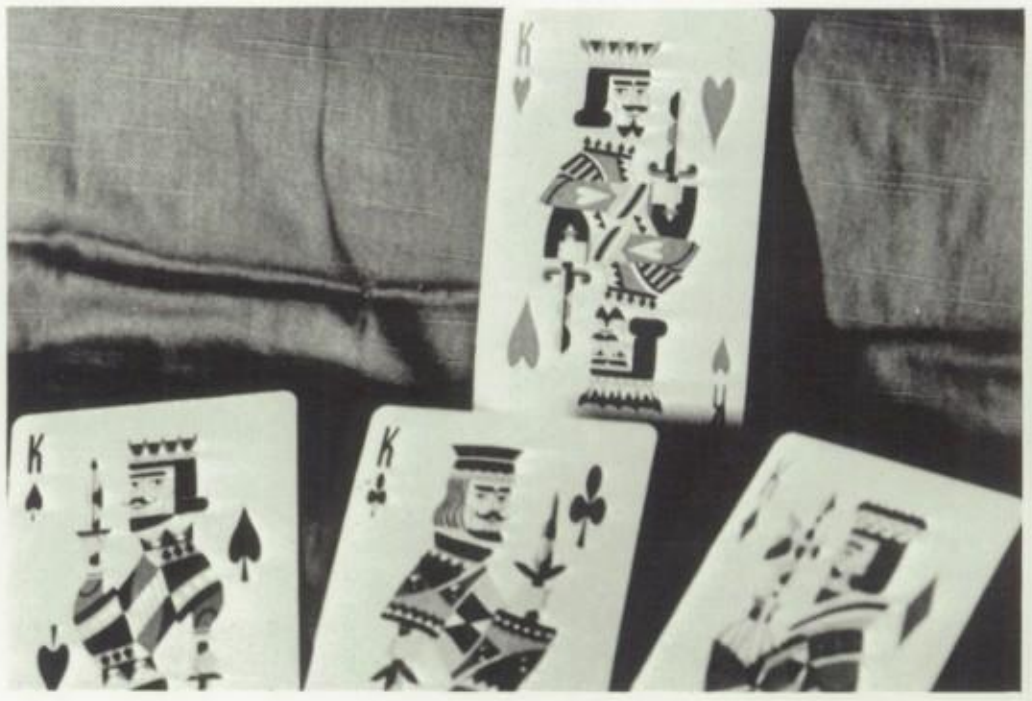
HARVARD BOOK AWARD



Hibbie Matter was this year's recipient of the Harvard Book Award. The Prize Book of the Associated Harvard Clubs is awarded to an outstanding junior who combines scholastic excellence with achievements in other fields.

KING OF HEARTS DANCE

. . and finally the King of Hearts.



The King of Spades, Paul Daniels; the King of Clubs, Tom Hellyer; the King of Diamonds, Mike Hayes; the King of Hearts, Randy Davis.

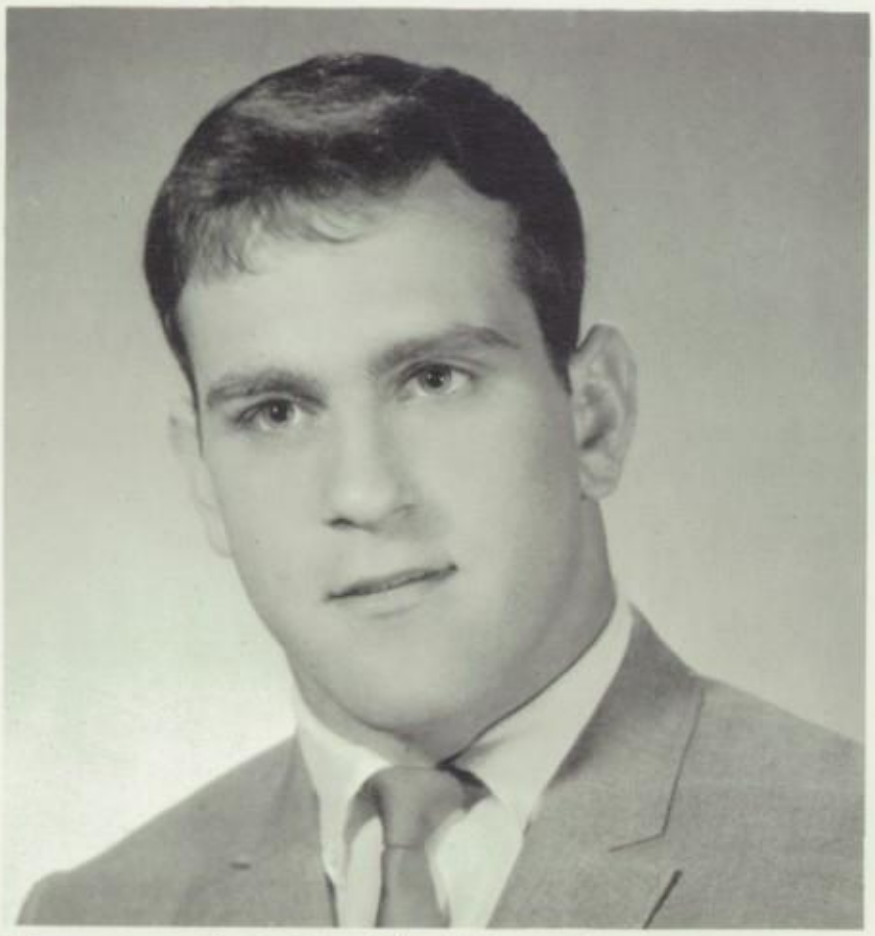
IT'S ACADEMIC

This years panelists for the NCHS' It's Academic team are (above) George Moss, Mike Givler, and Joe Woodward. The alternates are (right) Mark and Mike Kinnucan, Betty Chmelir and Jim Blum. The show will be taped and shown on T.V. at a later date. Of the fifteen students who originally tried out, these seven were chosen by Mr. DeVern Coleman and Coaches David Sharp and R. D. McElroy. The panel has been meeting at the students' homes during the actual showing of the program, and it has been stimulating actual contest conditions. Individual members have been alternating as captains during these sessions.

THE MIKE HOLT AWARD



This year's recipient of the Mike Holt award is Varsity Wrestler Tony Chirico. This award is given to the most valuable Varsity wrestler, as judged by the members of the team, based on scholarship, sportsmanship, and wrestling ability. This honor was made possible by the Mike Holt Memorial Fund, established in memory of Mike Holt, an outstanding NCHS wrestler who was killed in an auto accident in the summer of 1967.

WRESTLING QUEEN

Debbie Connor, the first NCHS Wrestling Queen, was chosen from one of twelve representatives of school clubs and organizations. The Queen candidates were: Susie Newman, Cindy Perry, Sally Kopp, Sue Koehler, Marcia Nepras, Becky Matuski, Debbie Connor, Carol VanTassell, Kathy Jordan, Cheryl Mandel, Sandy Schrader, and Gail Strock. This honor has been created to promote school interest in the wrestling teams.

COUNSELING

With the increasing number of students the counselors are busier than ever! They are always on the go, trying to help each student plan his future vocation, whether it be in further education or in the business world.

The catalogue library in the Counselors' Office is for everyone's use. Catalogues are found on colleges, vocations, and U. S. Services.

A testing program is also being issued by the Counseling Department to find the abilities and the vocational tastes and desires of the student. Among these are freshman tests, vocational apptitude tests, and Illinois Statewide tests.

ENGLISH

An English class is not bound by certain limits. The English Department proved this by adding challenges and competition to this year's curriculum. Challenges were given to the students in the form of a debate and discussion class, which discussed such controversial problems as the war in Viet Nam. The competition was our forensic team which participated in the district speech contests.

Next year, the English Department will go beyond the limits set this year. Most students are familiar with English as four years of required courses in grammar, composition, speech, and literature. Next year, the English Department plans to present juniors and seniors with an elective program which will include a study of television and motion pictures, the art of acting, two surveys of American and English literature, the foundations of Western literature, the new rhetoric, and other interesting courses.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

The Foreign Language Department has continually stressed the importance of understanding other cultures as well as learning to appreciate our own. Students have studied for adequate college preparation by learning to express themselves in a second language.

The students' education has been furthered this year outside of the classroom by outside activities, such as attending plays and restaurants linked with languages being studied. In this way students can become better acquainted with the type of atmosphere known to the inhabitants of the country being studied.

In a first-year language course, film strips and tapes are used, as oral recitation is stressed and basic grammar is learned. During the next three years, the emphasis is on reading and writing skills and grammar construction. These final years serve as preparation for college language courses.

Now, how do you pronounce that word?

SOCIAL SCIENCE: A Discovery

This year the Social Science Department went beyond the textbook and classroom study right into the heart of the subject with action. Sociology field trips took students into the inner city of Chicago to view and observe that way of life first hand. At Christmas time all NCHS students helped the Sociology class and the Student Council collect used clothing and toys for the Hull House project.

Lecture halls were filled with U. S. History students as team teaching methods were put into effect for the second consecutive year with lectures, discussions, and films. Other courses offered at present are World Geography, Ancient and Medieval History, Modern History, Economics and Government, American Problems, and Twentieth Century History.

The Music Department has recently expanded to include about four hundred students in Concert Band, Cadet Band, Concert Choir, Mixed Chorus, Girls' Chorus, and Orchestra.

This year the Choral Department presented "Amahl and the Night Visitors" for their Christmas Concert, followed by their second full scale musical," L'il Abner." The new look is red coats for the junior and senior boys, with the freshman and sophomore coats on the way.

Band members are still hoping for new uniforms by the next football season. For the first time the band competed in contests, and the chorus competed for the second time. The orchestra, band, and chorus members also participated in individual contests at the state level.

ART: The World Of Color And Design

Art, as in many other fields, has hidden horizons. The Art Department this year succeeded in uncovering their horizons by adding courses in pottery, jewelry, weaving, and leatherwork. These courses have become popular because of the increasing amount of creativity among the student body.

All of the old stand-bys were included in the curriculum along with some innovations; for example, the introduction of psychedelic design in the Art IV class. Students in all the classes combined their efforts to come up with a new NCHS indian insignia to be used both as a letterhead for the school stationery and to be the basis for a mosaic design on the wall of the new gymnasium.

The Art Department's horizons will reach a further peak next year, when a one-credit course on art honors will be offered. This course is designated for the inquisitive and investigating student and those interested in majoring in art. The course traces the development of art from ancient times to the atomic age. A tribute should be paid to the Art Department for its contribution to the molding of future creative talent.

The aim of the Mathematics Department is to prepare students for the activities they will engage in as adults. This applies to students headed for employment after graduation as well as those who are college bound.

Mathematics has a modern look. New equipment was used this year to aid the student's understanding. Included were overhead projectors, graphing charts, solid visual aids, and a Minivac 6010 computer.

Work was done this year on a plan to replace in the near future the one-semester courses of Advanced Algebra II and Analytical Geometry with a full-year course called Modern Introductory Analysis. This course would give students more preparation for college Calculus and college entrance exams. A computer programming course is also being considered. It will show the relationship of machine computation to mathematical principles. This line of study is in keeping with the objectives of the department and will serve to prepare students for the technological world.

NCHS entered the National Mathematics Contest and placed second in Illinois last year. This year we worked at taking first place. The young people who participated were unusually talented in mathematics. The Mathematics Department hopes to aid all students toward a better adult-life through its programs.

The Science Department at NCHS is striking out in new directions. In recent years the courses in biology, chemistry, and physics have been revised into BSCS Biology, CHEMS Chemistry, and PSSC Physics. With the addition of new texts and laboratory materials, the courses have been formed into more comprehensive units for students.

The learning process has been extended through the science seminar held in the evening. The seminar serves to give interested students different views of the subjects they are studying and also ideas outside of their field of study.

Study in the Science Department is aimed not only at preparing students for college, but also at helping students in their adult life. The reasoning processes learned in science and the basic knowledge of natural science can help the student, whether he becomes a Ph.D. or a store clerk. The specific goals in the department are different, but the result of these directions is to provide students with the means to further their knowledge.

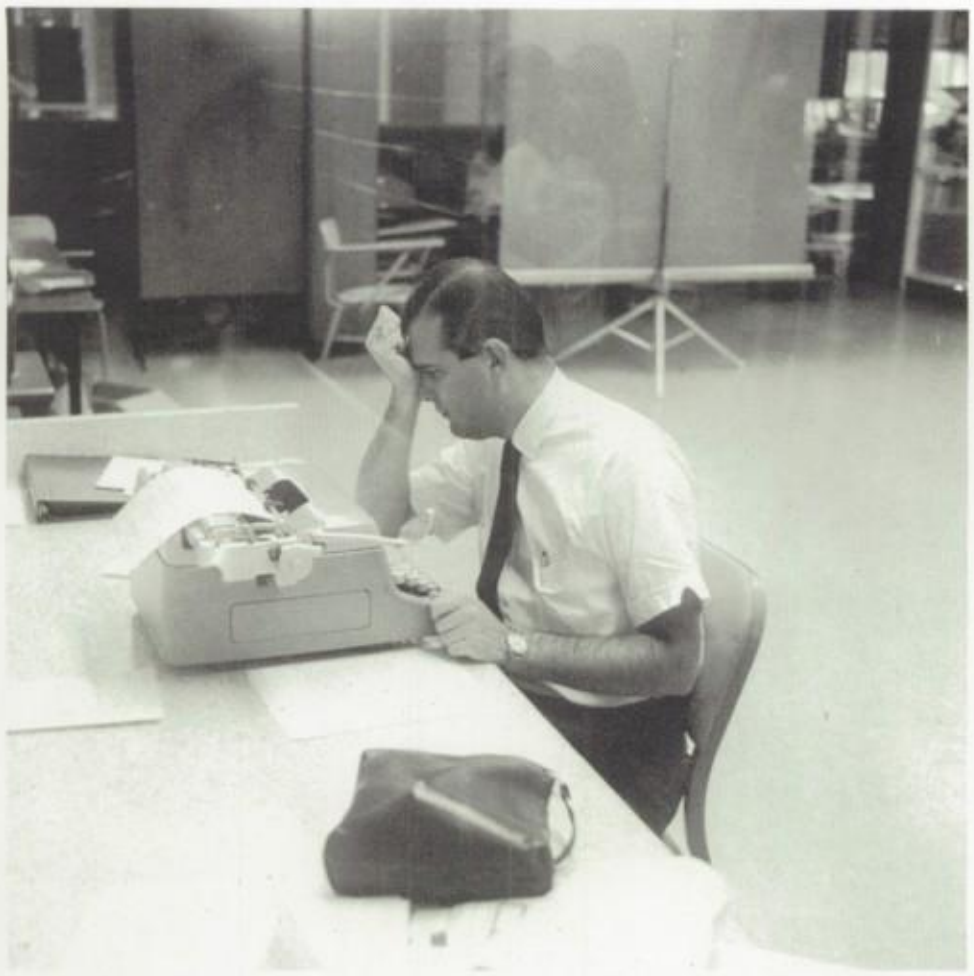
BUSINESS EDUCATION: Equals Job Training



Excedrin Headache #453—The Typographical Error.

This year the Business Education Department has really expanded. A staff of eight teachers and one assistant are teaching fifteen different courses to over 1100 students.

Recently added courses, Distributive Education and Office Occupations, are very popular among business students. These cooperative education courses give students regular credit plus pay for approved and supervised learning experiences.

Courses offered in the Business department are Typing I and II, Notehand, Salesmanship, Store Management, Office Occupations, Office Practice, Bookkeeping I and II, Shorthand I, Transcription, Introduction to Business, and Business Law.

HOME ECONOMICS: Planning For Today And The Future

The Home Economics Department has doubled its enrollment this year and a new clothing laboratory has been added. Students may enroll in two years of foods and two years of clothing. Courses offered to upperclassmen that cover other areas of homemaking are interior decorating, house planning, and equipping a home. A new attraction that has become very popular with the boys is a chefs' class.

TECHNICAL ARTS: Learning by Application

Three girls and an over-abundance of boys were enrolled in the courses the Technical Arts Department had to offer this year.

The courses are of two types: pre-vocational, and those aimed at continued study. In each area the emphasis leans toward application as well as skill and development.

Horticulture was a new course added this year, and co-operative education program will be put into effect next year in fields of agriculture and industrial education. Also, a basic electronics course will be added.

During the past year the department has offered agriculture, drafting, wood-working, electronics, metal working, and auto shop.

LIBRARY: Aids For Further Study

When extra information on a subject is required, or outside of class reading is desired, the library's doors are open to help fill these needs. This year, for the students' convenience the library was open from the start of the school day until 5 P.M. There has also been a new addition to Library 251 this year. To beautiful the decor, sage-green shelves were added.

The librarians are always on hand to be of any service to the students or to answer questions.

This year the Physical Education Department has been as active as ever. Some of the activities include touch football, speedball, wrestling, basketball, gymnastics, and softball. Also there is offered individual activities such as fencing, and weight training.

Perhaps activities have been somewhat limited because of the lack of space, but next year we are looking forward to the new gym. With this new gym it will be less crowded, and we can look forward to having the seniors back.

Some plans for the future are more co-ed activities such as social dancing.

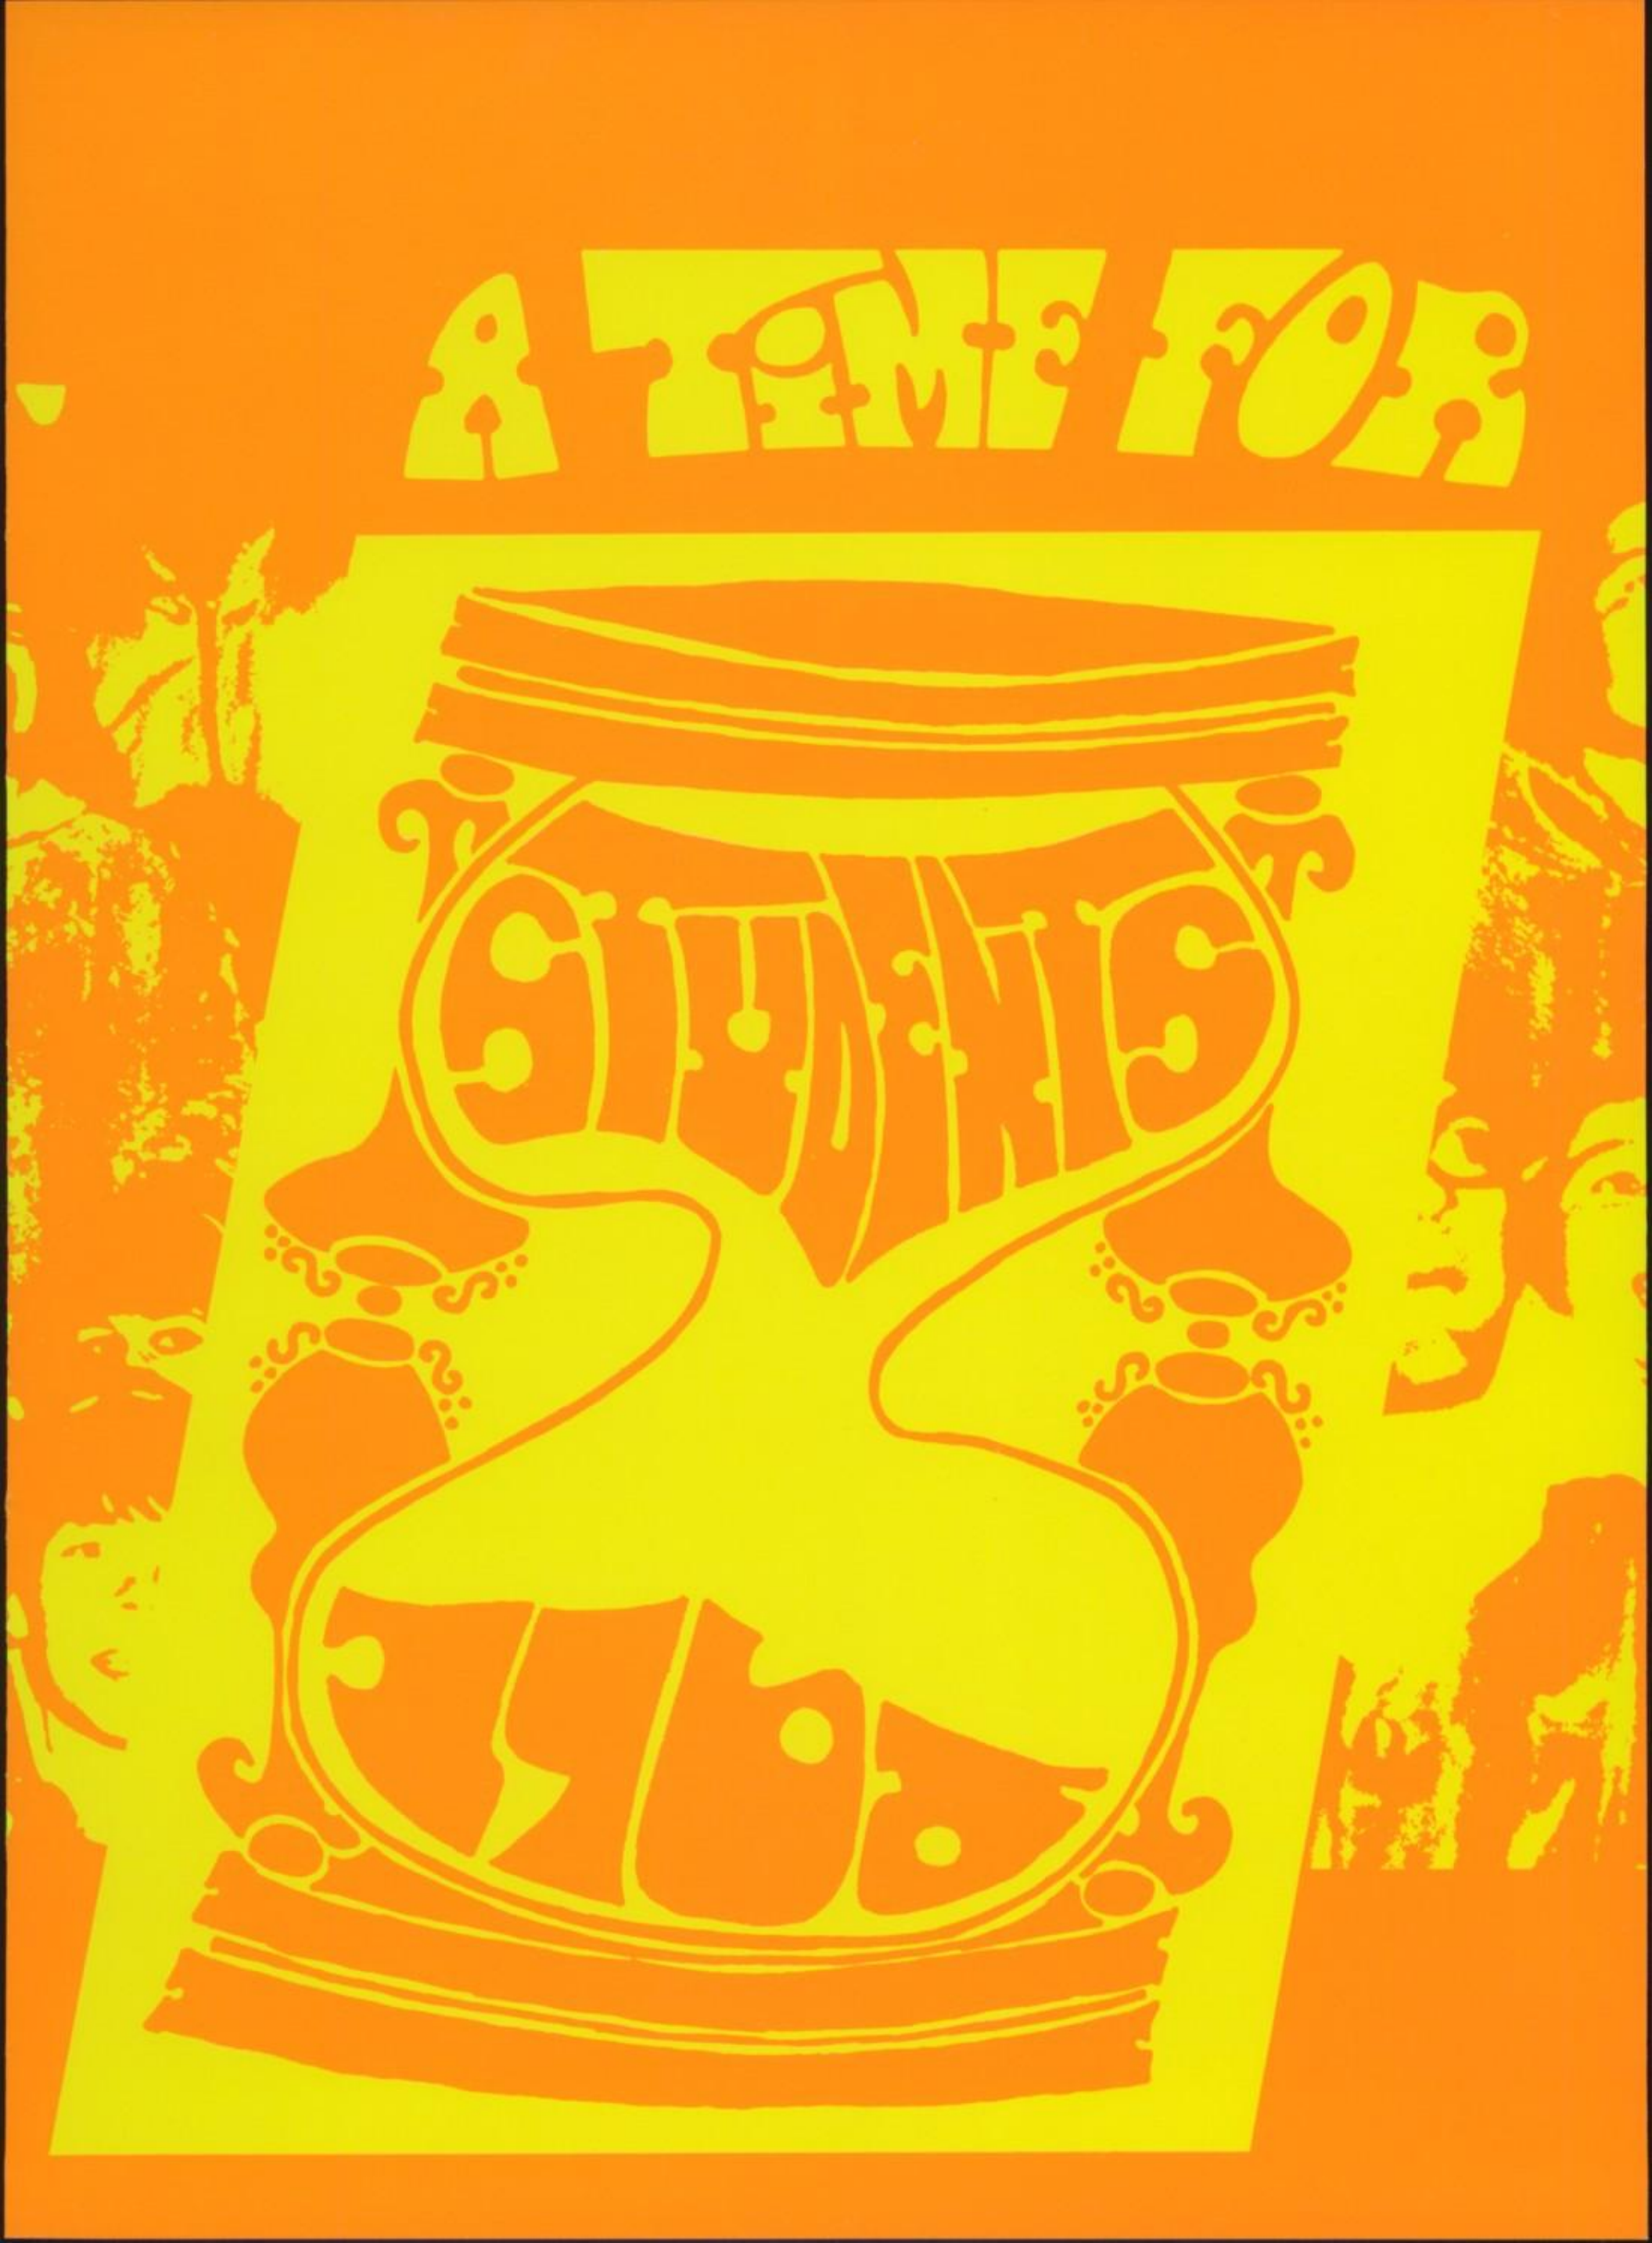
A TIME FOR



THE CLASS OF 1968

Hib Matter, President; Margaret Conn, Vice-President; Chris Barker, Secretary; Barb Heidorn, Treasurer.

It all started on a hot day in late August of 1964 as more than 400 freshmen met in the Activity Room for orientation. This was the first time the great class of 1968 met together. Confused and awed, we started off on the long road ahead of us in high school. Leading us through the frustrating experiences of our freshman year were: George Moss, President; Tom Burger, Vice-President; Bobbi Hughes, Secretary; and Bobbi De-Frang, Treasurer. Our first Homecoming was great, and we surprised everyone with our second-place float, "Topple 'Em." The spirit of our class was on its way as was shown with our car wash in the spring. Although more people got washed than cars, we managed to add an extra $75 to our depleted treasury.

A little more confident, we entered our sophomore year. To keep the class going, we chose Denise Paccione, President; Jay Wheeler, Vice-President; Sharon Fontenot, Secretary; and Karen Simons, Treasurer. Although our Homecoming was a stationary one, our spirit was undaunted as we pulled a "first" in the poster contest. Another car wash was held in the Spring; and as experienced sophomores we earned $100.

Finally . . . we were upperclassmen with an important junior year ahead of us. We found our leadership in Joe Woodward, President; Karen Simons, Vice-President; Jo Ellen Foote, Secretary; and Gisela Foyo, treasurer. Our desperate treasury was increased by the addition of the profits from "The Happening," featuring WLS's Clark Weber. Our Homecoming float, "Smoke 'Em Out," placed third in the judging, but our '68 blue sweatshirts were something new for Color Day. The melodramatic junior class play, Pure as the Driven Snow, was a big success in November. Our May Queen, Cindy Hellyer, and her attendants, Diane Steininger, Chris Cosyns, Chris Barker, and Peg James were chosen from the Top Ten. On May 27, 1967, the ballroom at Pheasant Run was transformed into a castle to fit the theme, "Once Upon a Dream." Under the direction of Karen Simons, the ballroom became a castle complete with shields, candelabra, and roses.

Then it happened. At last, we the Class of '68, had risen to the top. For our senior year, we elected Hibbie Matter, President; Margaret Conn, Vice-President; Chris Barker, Secretary; and Barb Heidorn, Treasurer. We worked harder than ever at Homecoming and our huge rabbit with his "Elgin, Your Time Is Up," took a tie for first place. Our class song, sung to the tune of "Georgie Girl," placed first in the Class Song Contest. We crowned our Queen, Diane Steininger, and her attendants, Chris Cosyns and Peg James as everything was seen "Through the Looking Glass" for Homecoming '67. The senior class play in November was a modern version of the Greek play, Antigone. Stars Bob Belt and Rosemarie Hohol and the rest of the cast did an excellent job in this unique production. We brought another first to NCHS during our senior year with our "Up With Soul." This dance brought WGRT's Tony Quinn and soul music to Naperville. This year we welcomed two AFS students—Boonrak Boonyaketmala from Thailand and Paula Goyano from Brazil to NCHS.

Now as the class of 1968 meets again for the last time on an early day in June, we can all look back on our days at NCHS with many different attitudes and memories. AFS
BOONRAK
BOONYAKETMALA

The destinations of lives are not the same; one of us goes in one direction while others go in different directions. Life is a struggle for existence, especially for us as human beings. No one can know what our futures will be. We do know, however, that at the end of life, the soul goes forth alone; only our good deeds live on.

As your fellow student at NCHS this year, I feel both appreciation and pride. Naperville has provided AFS memories for many students over the years, helping to build everlasting relationships throughout the world. I am one of those students who will never forget the wonderful experiences here.

Finally, I wish all of you Redskins the best of everything. Even when I have returned to Thailand, I will think of myself as a Redskin.

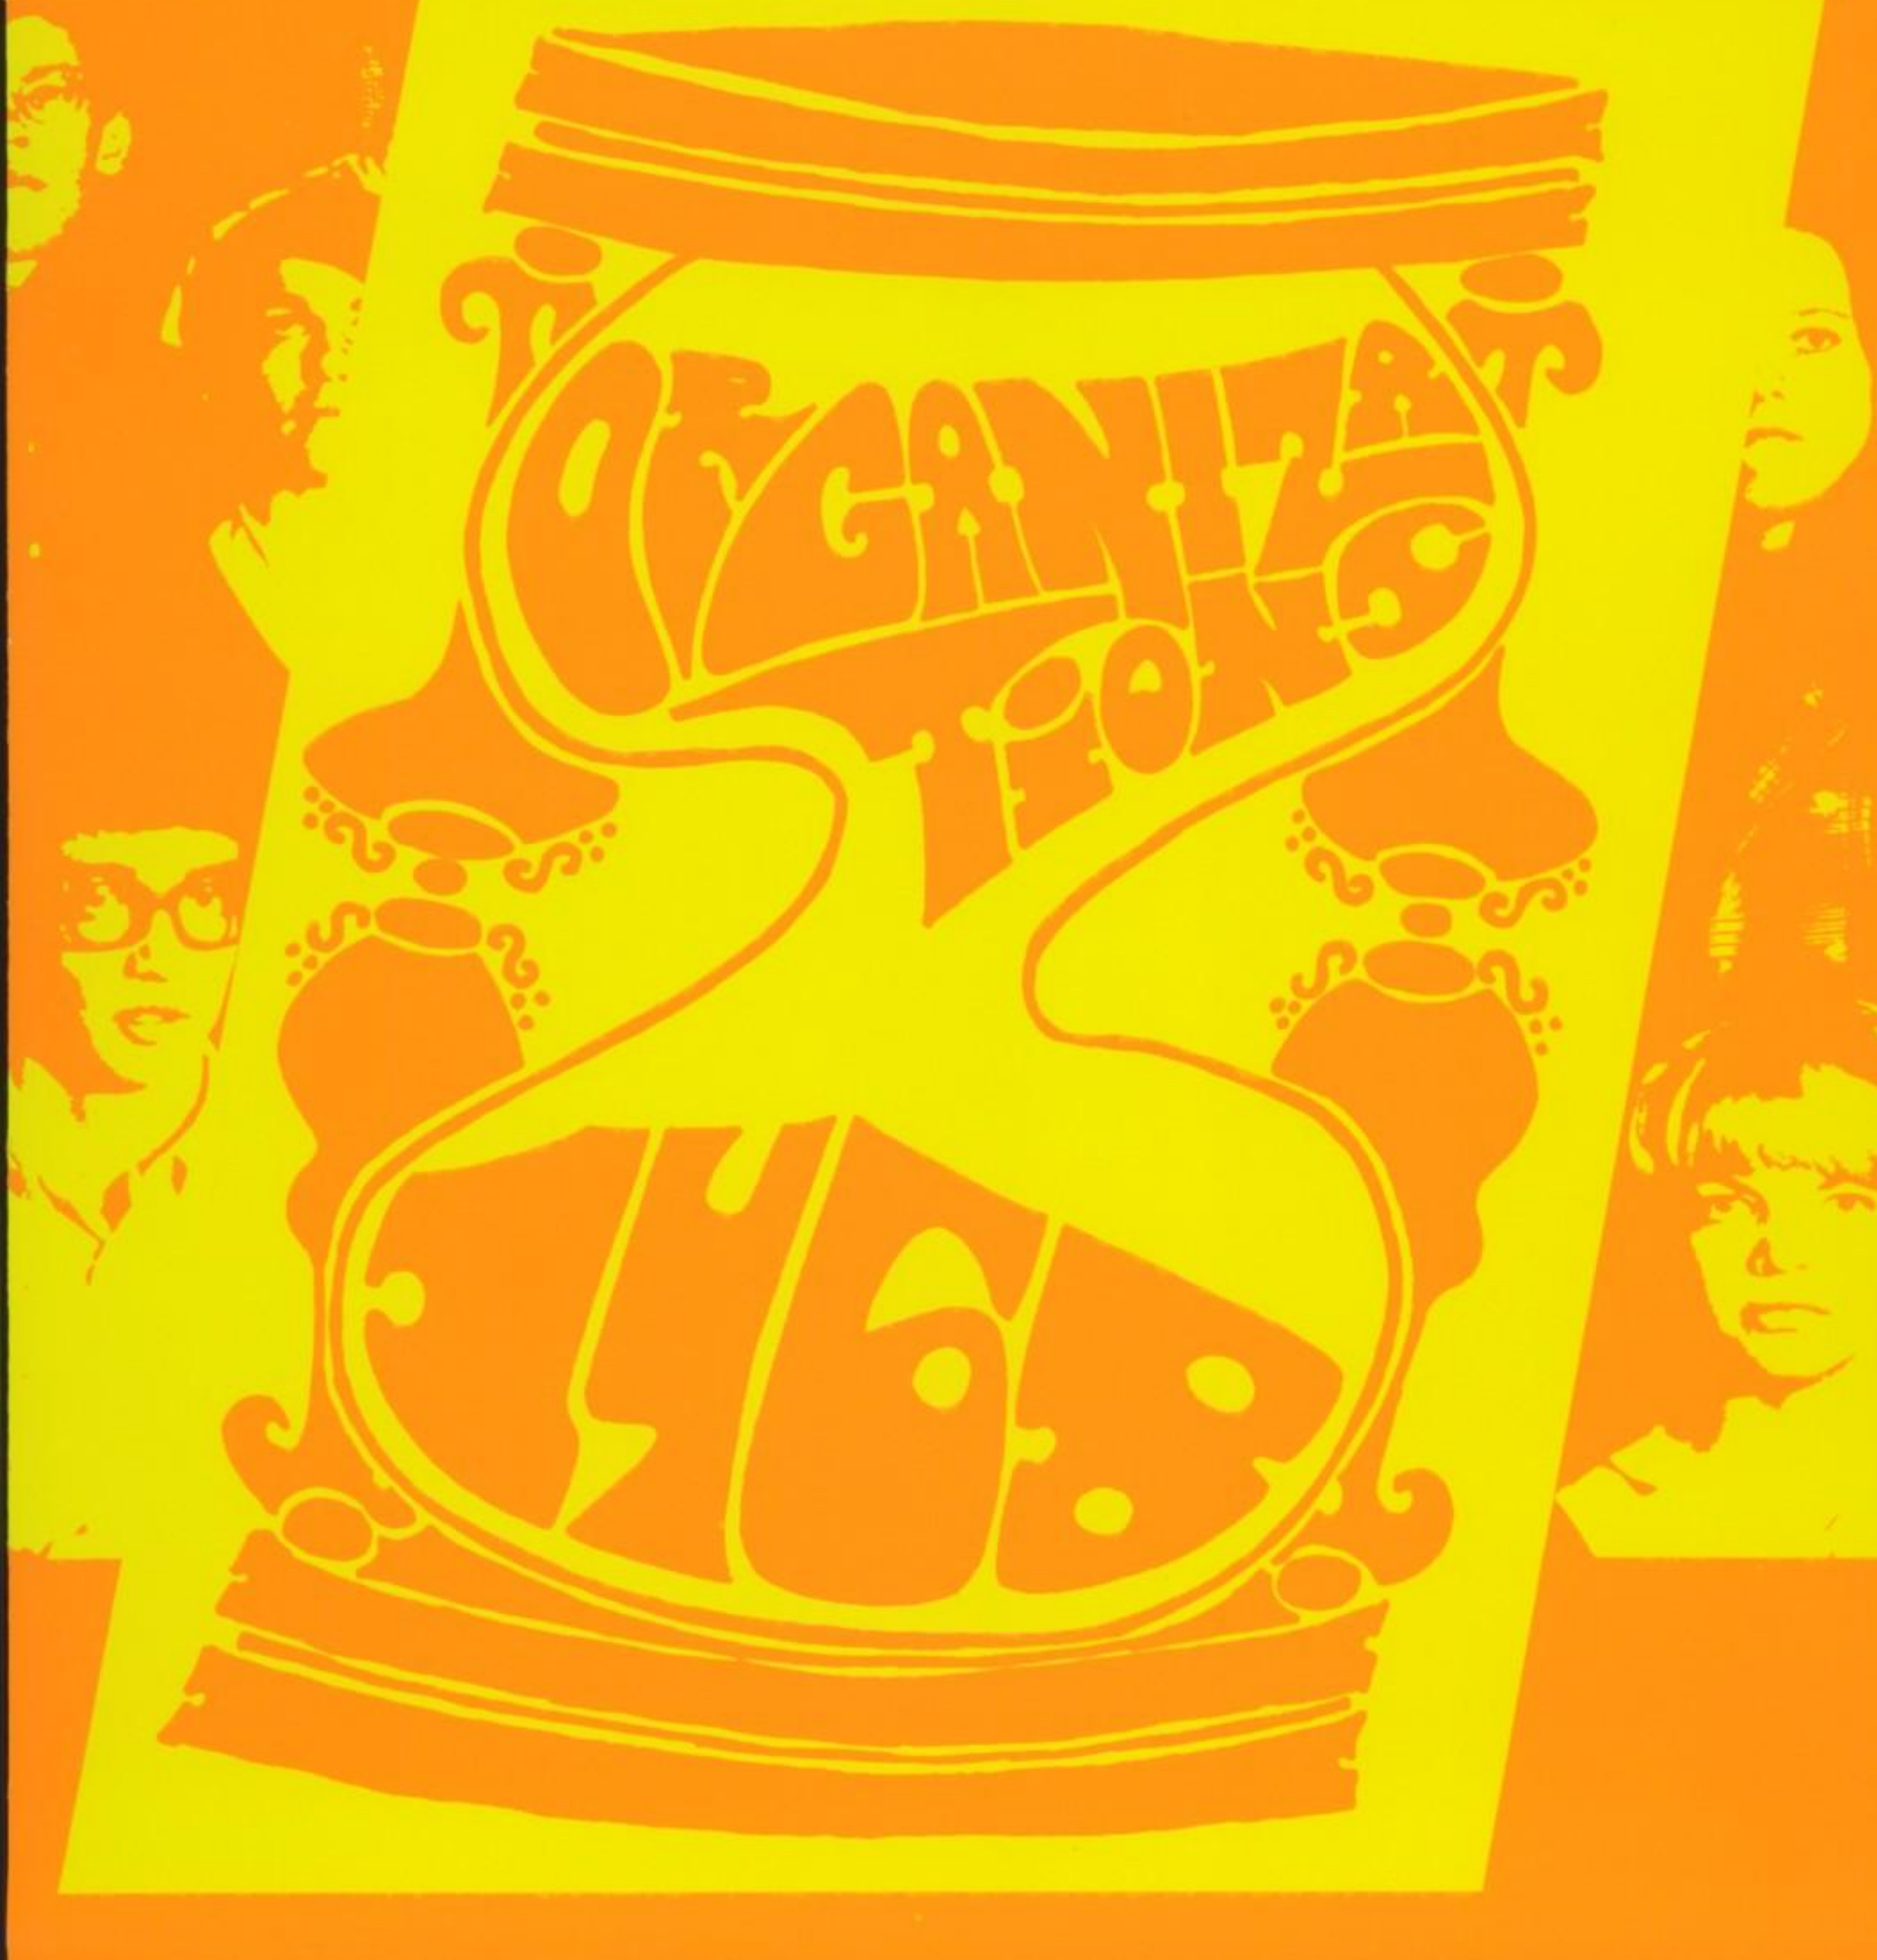
A TIME FOR



Student Council

As the primary organization of NCHS, student council controls communications between the student body and the administration, as well as representing the student body. It also charters all school organizations and promotes good citizenship in the community as well as in the school. Council sponsored activities include: freshman and new student orientation, a clothing and toy drive, the Hirsch exchange, the student announcement committee and the new student aid program.

The highlight of student council this year was the creation of a new constitution which we hope will promote further student representation in the school.

Executive Board

Seated: Sue Juergens, Joe Woodward, Chris Cosyns, Diane Steininger. Standing: Mike Frost, Mike Givler, George Moss, Mr. Willard.

Freshman Class Council

Senior Class Council

Sitting: Nancy Warner, Carey Erickson, Hib Matter, Chris Barker, Barb Heidorn, Carol Scott, Peg James. Standing: Denise Paccione, Karen Simons, Pam Bebas, Bill Riebel, Keith Kelman, Dick Greenwood, Susie Newman.

Social Committee

The many varied and successful social activities during the past year were a result of the careful planning and work of the Social Committee of Student Council. They organized the Pow-Wow '67 and built the Queen's float for the Homecoming parade. At Christmas time the Victory Dance and "Moonlight and Mistletoe" were initiated by the committee.

Co-Chairmen Chuck Bill and Kim Green.

Assembly Committee

The duties of the Assembly Committee include the planning and emceeing of all of the assemblies. This task consists of contacting various groups to present assemblies. Introducing the speaker, leading the pledge, and dismissing the students are all a part of the job.

The organization of the annual talent show is also the responsibility of the committee. It was decided that co-chairmen and a sponsor would be enough to handle the job this year.

American Field Service

The American Field Service is an organization which sponsors our foreign exchange students.

To raise money, a share drive is held each year. There are AFS receptions which help the exchange students to get acquainted. The annual AFS Weekend in the Spring brings other foreign students to our community.

Human Relations Club

Human Relations Club was started with the intention of showing different view points and experiences in life that help students to formulate new ideas and opinions.

The club has invited speakers to lead discussions on various topics in the field or current events. Some of the topics discussed this year were: "The Summer Peace Project", "The World Federation", "The Impending Racial Crisis", and "The Criminal Communist Conspiracy".

Seated: Sandy Brown, Nancy Hansen, Dick Greenwood. Standing: Mr. Baker, Kathy Todoroff, Betsy Nounan, Susie Newman, Charles Winkler, Bob Hupp, Chas. O'Donnell. Missing: Co-chairmen Jo Ellen Foote and Glen Wiche.

This year, the Arrowhead Staff has tried to use many new ideas in the yearbook. They have been busy designing their sections, losing many hours of sleep to meet deadlines. Summer workshops attended by the editors have taught them many new and improved layout designs and effective use of pictures. The book was expanded this year to one hundred sixty-eight pages including more color and the new Student Life and Academic sections.

Pat Barnes, Debbie Gensler, Deenie Janick, Dan Veith.

Smoke Signals Staff

This year marked the inauguration of a new journalism class whose responsibility it was to write the bi-monthly Smoke Signals. Under the direction of Mrs. Jean Schmus, the staff scoured NCHS for news, obtained interviews with teachers, and hunted new advertisers. The result was experience for the class in most facets of the newspaper business and a thoroughly informative and entertaining journal of school life.

Icarian Staff

Carol Joel, Melissa McComb, Larry Harvett, Susie Newman, Jay Kinney, Lauri Notheisen, Mary Landry, Beth Green.

The Icarian Staff is comprised of selected students from Mrs. Schmus's creative writing class. These students have the responsibility of editing NCHS's literary magazine the Icarian. Every year they must search the school for the best in poetry, short stories, and essays. Reading through stacks of our students' literary efforts, they attempt to evaluate them and finally choose the best that NCHS has to offer for publication.

Preparing half-time shows is a full time job for NCHS's marching band in the fall. At that time of year there is more than just music to be learned. Bandsmen must master the rudiments of marching and intricate maneuvers.

The concert band performs at Pfieffer Hall, gives a school assembly, and visits one junior high for a concert. This year the band was sent to State Music Contest for the first time.

The Cadet Band is the training organization. This year they played at a pep rally and a basketball game, and they gave a concert at the Americana Home.

The Stage Band is an extra-curricular group. It entertained patrons at "Cafe USA", made a guest appearance at Lincoln Jr. High, and took part in the Winter-fest at Four Lakes.

In March, members of the band travelled to Rochelle to participate in the State Solo and Ensemble Contest.

The expanding NCHS choruses have led a very explosive year. Under the direction of Mr. John Pearce, the choruses have extended their many and varied talents to present the spirit for which our school is known. Just a few of their many activities include the production of "Cafe USA", the opera "Amahl and the Night Visitors", and the full length Broadway musical "L'il Abner".

From all the choirs are chosen twenty-four of the most talented musicians who comprise the Chorale. The Chorale, which consists of two madrigal groups, performs at many community affairs.

Tri-R's

Apple Day is the Naperville Chapter of Tri-R's most concentrated effort to raise money for the Children's Research Foundation. Under the sponsorship of Miss Annen, they work hard all year long and go by the slogan, "So they may live."

Chess Club

Chess Club, which meets once a week, spent the year preparing for future meets with other schools. A continuing tournament among members keeps all participants eager to raise their standing. Correspondence with a Russian chess club through the Russian Embassy cultivates hope for a game played through letters.

Senior Varsity Club

The Varsity Club is made up of those who have received a Varsity letter. Their main activity is to play against the faculty basketball team in the annual student-faculty basketball game.

Underclassmen Varsity Club

The Underclassmen members of the Varsity Club are those boys who have achieved their Varsity letters at the underclassman level because of their outstanding ability and performance.

Drama Club

Drama Club started off the year with a big membership drive. Those joining found the opportunity to participate in any one of a number of activities. There was the annual Christmas Reader's Theatre and numerous one-act plays. A trip into Chicago to view a professional play was a highlight in this year's activity.

Thespians

Thespians, whose purpose is for the advancement and improvement of dramatic arts, has lead an exciting and eventful year. Annual activities of the club include the initiation dinner, unusual club meetings, and participation in "Antigone", Cafe USA, "Harvey", and "L'il Abner".

Leading Drama Club through an eventful year, Thespians have taken on new ventures such as building the first float ever entered by them in the Homecoming Parade. The members also went to work in the various elementary schools helping the children with their dramatic productions.

Carol Joel, Treasure Lynn Clark, Polly Harris, Co-President Carey Erickson, Carol Scott, Secretary Kim Green, Mike Berryman, Co-President Rosemarie Hohol, Mary Ellen Pelling, JoAnn Dressler.

Forensics

Forensics has led NCHS to more speech making this year than ever before. The work put into this organization was aimed at competing against other schools in such contests as the Upstate Eight Contest.

After school workshops have kept participants busy. A few of the categories that interested students have to choose from for competition include poetry and prose recitation, after dinner speaking, and dialogues.

Debate Team

NCHS debaters are of three distinct classes: Varsity, JV, and Novice. The JV team was outstanding this year, winning the Upstate Eight Depate Conference. The Varsity team also ended the season in fine standing.

President Karen Simons, Social chairman Anne Morgan, Service Projects Chairman Becky Matuski, Treasurer Lola Collen, Secretary Jody Gibbs.

Girls League Officers

Girls League is an organization of which every girl in the school is automatically a member. It strives to unite the girls from all classes with activities that are fun and at the same time beneficial to others in some way.

As is the custom, the Girls League kicked off the year with a big and little sister coke party. In spring, the whole school looks forward to the May Dance. In addition to this, another turn about affair was created by Girls League this year, the King of Hearts Dance over which reigns the senior boy crowned King of Hearts.

Pep Club Officers

The past school year has been an exciting and eventful one for the members of Pep Club. With the promotion of school spirit as their goal, the officers have taken charge of this year's activities.

"The Looking Glass" reflected Homecoming '67 as a smashing success. The annual Queen's Assembly, bonfire, parade and dance once again magically appeared.

Although Homecoming is Pep Club's most significant activity, there are other important events sponsored by them. Basketball parents night, the Spring Sports Banquet, and the Upstate Eight Spring Workshop have been made possible through this organization.

The Co-operative Education classes of NCHS consisting of D.E. and O.O. were hosts to the annual Area Thirteen Fall Student Conference. Two hundred students from ten different schools attended. There were varied workshops, a fashion show, a banquet, and finally a dance held at the Barn.

Besides the conference, the two groups provide many other services such as pep hops, newspaper articles about individuals in the group, and coat checks at basketball games.

Both clubs were represented by several members at the State and National Conferences for Co-operative Education.

Office Occupations

Carolyn Lassen, Nurse: Mrs. Rizzo, Deenie Janick, Starline Pestlin, Laurie Ory, Sue Luthy

Future Nurses of America

The Future Nurses of America is an organization designed for students who are interested in the possibility of entering the health profession. A Nurse's Aide Training Program encourages members to work as aides during the summer to gain experience in the field. Work in the nurse's office and in a nursing home add to this experience.

Future Teachers of America

FTA this year has done many services for the school. A student aid program to help teachers correct papers was initiated as well as a tutoring service done in connection with the National Honor Society.

Observance of teachers at work is also a part of their training.

Future Farmers of America

Selling safety items for the farm provides funds for the many activities of the Future Farmers. Meeting once a month, they have planned chicken barbecues for farm bureaus, a roller skating party, and a pancake dinner in the Spring.

French Club

Winning first prize for their Homecoming float began an active year for French Club. A rainy walk through Chicago led to an exciting evening with Charles Aznavour. Dinner in a real French restaurant topped off the year for the French enthusiasts.

Spanish Club

A great interest was shown in Spanish Club this year. Members have especially enjoyed the monthly trips scheduled by the club. Favorites were the stage play, "Man of la Mancha" and dinner at Hacienda del Sol, a real Spanish restaurant.

German Club

Great enthusiasm has led to much activity on the part of German Club this year. An AFS benefit at the Barn, two pep hops, and a spring picnic were all a part of it. The high spot for these German enthusiasts though, was a trip into Chicago which included two German movies and dinner at the Gold Knocks Restaurant.

Art Club

The art of making paper mache flowers is certainly not easy, but NCHS's Art Club has successfully designed and constructed them as one of their artistic efforts. Meeting twice a month, the club plans future projects and discusses current topics in the field of art.

AV Service

The Audio-visual Service Club was organized for the purpose of serving the faculty with projectionists. Operating and repairing all types of audiovisual equipment is another facet of their work.

Guidance Aides

Although the Guidance Aides usually go unnoticed in the halls of the High school, their job is certainly an important one. They carry all communications between the counsellors and students. In addition to this, they keep up the college files and do other miscellaneous jobs for the guidance office secretaries and counsellors. They are kept especially busy each spring when the counsellors are setting up next years' schedules.

Library Aides

The Library Aides provide invaluable assistance to the regular librarians while gaining long lasting experience for themselves. They help students check out books and keep the library in order at all times so that the books can easily be found.

Leaders Club

Char Pradel, Peg Strayer, Onna Gilbert, Lovey Hanes, Jean Bodhaine, Barb Dorsch, Sandy Born, Chris Cosyns, Lola Collen, Sherry Hittner, Mary Ellen Pelling, Tracy Jorden, Kay Schnizlein, Sandy Riedy.

Every girl's Physical education class is familiar with Senior Leaders. The leaders are girls who are specifically trained in the fundamentals of teaching certain aspects of physical education and refereeing the games. This extensive training during the girls sophomore and junior years enables them to become leaders when seniors.

Girls Intramurals Board

Top: Onna Gilbert, Jill Halgrimson, Judy Springborn. Bottom: Lovey Hanes, Teresa Gray.

Girls Intramurals is a recent innovation at NCHS this year. It has replaced GAA and now requires no dues. Membership is open to all girls who have an interest in sports. Many fcets of physical education are brought in including gymnastics and bowling.

1967 VARSITY CROSS COUNTRY

HARRIERS RETIRE CONFERENCE TROPHY

For the third straight season the Naperville Cross Country squad ran to the top of the Upstate Eight. The unprecedented third title enabled Coach Lowell Berger's harriers to retire the conference trophy.

The void left by the graduation of five top runners last year was filled ably this season by a talented group of underclassmen. Three juniors, two sophomores, and one freshman earned letters. Foremost among them was Co-captain Rex Barrett, the Skins No. 1 runner. He will return next year as co-captain with Rich Hope. Senior letter winners were Co-captain Scott Dobberstein, Jeff Leigh, and Joe Woodward.

1967 VARSITY FOOTBALL

Head Coach Wes Spencer and Coach Dick Smith evaluate their team's play at Aurora West. Their guiding influence brought the Redskins through their successful season.

Only superlatives can be used to describe the campaign our Varsity Football Redskins waged during the 1967 season. Head Coach Wes Spencer and Coach Dick Smith molded a versatile offense with a bruising defense to produce one of the outstanding teams in the Upstate Eight. The Redskins placed third in the loop standings with a 5-2 conference mark and finished with an excellent 7-2 season record.

Balance was the key to the Naperville offense. A potent air attack and a punishing ground game, supported by strong line play, gave the Skins a diversified offense that averaged 18.2 points per game. Defensively Naperville was the best in the league, allowing the least points in the conference. The Redskins recorded five shutouts and held opponents to less than a touchdown per game. The quality of the Redskins' play is best indicated by the fact that every starter was named either All-conference, Special Mention, or Honorable Mention in post-season balloting by the conference coaches.

At the completion of the season Mike Ballou and Bill Gorski were named as co-captains for next year and football captain Hib Matter was honored with the Neil Stiefbold Memorial Award.

MATMEN ESTABLISH 7-7 RECORD

This season Head Wrestling Coach Bill Young, assisted by coach Neil McCauley, entered a team bolstered by several underclassmen into competition. Three sophomores and four juniors earned places on the team and performed well enough throughout the campaign to help Naperville capture fifth place in the conference. Naperville established a 3-4 record in the tough Upstate Eight which produced the state champion in Dekalb. The Redskins polled a 7-7 season mark and finished 2nd in the Joliet Central Quadrangular, 2nd in Naperville's own quadrangular, 4th in the Palatine Tourney, and fourth in the District Meet. In the conference meet at St. Charles, the Redskins were barely edged out of the first division by a margin of two points.

This season also marked the first presentation of the Mike Holt Memorial Award. Mike, a two year varsity standout, died the summer before his senior year, and the award was given in his memory to the outstanding wrestler. Tony Chirico received the first award this year for his consistent performance. Tony was the only Redskin to win a conference championship, gaining the top spot in the 154 pound weight division.

TANKMEN SUCCESSFUL IN FIRST SEASON

Coach Frank Trossen added a new dimension to Naperville winter sports when he sent the first Redskin swim team in history into competition. Aided by Coach Scheafer, he organized a young, inexperienced squad into a team that became a consistent winner. The Redskins ended with a winning season against schools with veteran teams — a tribute to the Skins' ability and Mr. Trossen's coaching.

The squad was bolstered by an outstanding group of underclassmen, headed by sophomores Jim Rohrs, Eric Topham, Craig Impey, and Mark Quigley, freshman Dave Eggleton, and junior Jim Grandt. Seniors Mark Fenrich and Greg Blair were also excellent performers.

SKINS FACE TOUGH COMPETITION

A 14-9 season record would be a respectable mark for most teams, but for Naperville it is more than just "respectable" when one considers the type of competition the Skins faced during the 1967-68 campaign. They played eight games against squads ranked among the top twenty in Illinois—six of the games being conference contests. Dekalb, co-champion with Aurora East, eventually placed fourth in the state tournament, indicating the strength in the Upstate Eight. Against such talented opponents the Redskins' fourth place finish in the loop was a very notable achievement indeed.

The Skins started the season successfully by winning their first five games, including a first place in the St. Francis De Sales Tourney. During the first round of conference play, the Skins slipped to a 3-4 loop record and sixth place, but came back in the second half of the season to post a 7-7 final record and grab a first division berth.

Perhaps the highlight of the season came on Feb. 9 when the Redskins captured Coach Grove's 300th victory in his 16 year coaching career. They beat Elgin 58-53 that night and also took permanent possession of fourth place.

The Skins' success came from a genuine team effort, but at the season's completion, three Redskins were given special recognition. Team captain Jim Drendel was named All-Conference, while Mike Spencer and Tom Winrow received Special Mention.
